

HALLAM CATHOLIC SAFEGUARDING COMMISSION

Vacancy for a Parish Safeguarding Representative

The role of the Parish Safeguarding Representative is to help promote a culture of Safeguarding, where the parish community is aware of safeguarding issues, and help ensure safeguarding is understood as an essential part of living the Gospels.

He/she will guide those working with children, young people and vulnerable adults so that policies and procedures are understood and followed, and will ensure that any concerns or allegations of possible harm to children, young people or vulnerable adults receive a prompt response and are referred appropriately.

There is currently a vacancy within the parish for a Safeguarding Representative.

If you are interested in taking on this role or would like further information then please do contact the Safeguarding Office on 0114 2566453 we would be very glad to hear from you.

In the absence of a Parish Safeguarding Representative should you have any concerns, issues or are worried about a child or adult who may be at risk of harm then you can contact us by:
